

PRESIDENTIAL ENABLING BUSINESS ENVIRONMENT COUNCIL (PEBEC)

ABOUT

Making Nigeria an Easier Place for Businesses to Thrive: The PEBEC Story

Five years after its inception, The Presidential Enabling Business Environment Council (PEBEC) needed to effectively communicate its numerous business reforms to a wide range of stakeholders, including MSMEs, women in business, policymakers, and government agencies. The challenge? To clear away red tape, build bridges between public and private sectors, and construct a narrative that would attract both local and international investors.

Key Results:

Enhanced brand awareness, recall, and advocacy.

39

Nigeria moved up 39 places in the World Bank Ease of Doing Business index

135

Over 135 operational business reforms pioneered

4K

4,000 attendees at “The Future is Here” stage play (doubling the anticipated 2,000)

SOLUTIONS

Introducing PEBEC to a younger generation.

PEBEC's next challenge? Communicating its reforms to a younger demographic. Our Solution? A stage play titled, "The Future is Here". The 1500 anticipated attendees turned out to be a 3000 attendees' success. The result? The PEBEC website had a spike in visitations, brand awareness/recall, increased following and continued brand advocacy. Now that's how you put on a show!
